PEOPLE MAY NOT KNOW...

I'm most interested in art, and I'm really good at getting phone numbers...from the ladies...

If I could wear one piece of clothing for the rest of my life, it would be my Giants shirt because I love the team!!!

FRIENDLY, SMART, CHEERFUL, GOOD-LOOKING

Bridging Communities Through Alternative Communication

THE 411...

My name is David Alan [redacted]. My nickname is Alan. I was born in New Haven CT, but live in the Bay Area now! I have lots of brothers and they think I'm too loud! I'm most interested in art. I like to go to go to the Bridging Communities Through Alternative Communication meetings/activities and I like having the group come to my house. I like to watch TV and hang with Ben, my brother, in my free time. I also hang at Greater Opportunities; we listen to music. I'm not a fan of bees, but I'm totally crazy about Veronica and wish she was as crazy about me. My friends are important to me and what really makes me laugh to the point of almost peeing in my pants is a good joke and messing around with my crazy friends. I like a good game; I particularly like playing

'Concentration' on my Dynavox communication device because it makes me think.

A FEW OF MY FAVS...

My favorite movie is Anger Management and I love to watch wrestling shows. If you turned on my iPod or CD player, my playlist would include Pearl Jam. I also collect CDs and DVDs of wrestling.

The best thing that ever happened to me was being adopted and accepted by my family. I'm most likely to google/surf the net for movies. My favorite sound is listening to the rain. If I've got money to blow, I'm most likely to buy McDonald's. I can't live without love, money, and my computer. When I get home I love to relax, and watch movies on the computer.

That's what I'm talkin' about... I love Chinese food and chocolate pudding and if I went to the coffee shop my order would go something like this: I'd like a large French toast with LOTS of sugar.
