Bridging Communities Through Alternative Communication

ME IN A FEW WORDS

Here's what you need to know about me: I am a drama queen. That's right, I love to act, the more dramatic the part, the better. That's why I love the villains! I've been a member of the Angels on Stage theatre troupe for the past 3 years, performing in such plays as the Jungle Book, Aladdin, and most recently I was the cookie jar in Alice in Wonderland. Cool part, huh? So you see, I don't let my difficulties with communication stand in my way.

Speaking of communication (pun intended), I use many things to help me communicate: Dynavox Vmax, Proloquo2Go on my iPod/iPad, voice and signs. I prefer my voice because it is easier and I think it sounds prettier.

I am in a post-senior program in San Jose where I enjoy being in choir (yes, I love singing, too!) and trying out different jobs. I like it when friends and staff in the program sign to me.

A Bay Area girl, born and raised in Sunnyvale, I live at home with my Dad (whom I adore) and my Mom, our cat Cali, and tons of fish. I miss my older brother Alex, who is in college. I take a dance class which is way cool, since I get to wear a costume, and horseback riding which is still cool even though I don't get to wear a costume.

Musical theatre, ballet, music with a strong beat, these are all things I enjoy. When you get to know me, you'll find that I have a good sense of humor, am compassionate and empathetic.

My trademark is my hug. I am so friendly and affectionate; I would hug everyone if I could. People are my thing, I love to be around them and be a part of what's happening!

All Wet Log ride...

I like horses!
