

NICOLE G.

PEOPLE MAY NOT KNOW...I LOVE MY FAMILY LIKE CRAZY!

Boy crazy, stubborn, happy...

ME IN A FEW WORDS

I was born in San Francisco and now live in Marin – just north of the Golden Gate Bridge. I was born with an aneurysm in my brain and have had 35 surgeries in my life – so yes, they call me the miracle girl! Luckily I haven't visited any hospitals in over 6 years. I go to Redwood High School with my sister Jackie. I have tons of friends and love school. I have two switches to talk to everyone and I am really good at telling everyone what I like and especially what I don't like! I have an iPad and I love to use it to talk to everyone and best of all, I love the games. ☺ I live in a new house and have two fun roommates. We have movie night once a month and the house is full of friends and pizza. I love pizza. I love to bowl and go every Friday night unless I have a dance to go to with my boyfriend(s). I have two boyfriends and they are really nice and take me out to dinner and to the movies. I love my mom, dad, sister and brother. And my two dogs too.

I love to ride horses....

I love to dress up for Halloween!

Me, my mom, my brother Matt, and sis Jackie

